

Letter to Mrs. Martha Cooke of Sandusky, Ohio from M. L.
M. O'Neil of Worthington, 10/11/1838

Subject: Introducing Misses Tucker and Johnson and asking her to give "any attention you can pay to them" [perhaps changing stages enroute to Milan to visit Mary's brother William?]

[Handwritten note, script]

Worthington, Oct. 11th 1838

Dear Mrs. Cooke,

Permit me to introduce you to Misses Tucker and Johnson, you will find them agreeable and intelligent young ladies - they will stop a few hours in your City, any attention you can pay to them, shall be reciprocated by myself to you - they are particular friends of mine. I intended visiting you this month but am disappointed shall come and see you in the spring. I leave here tomorrow for Delaware but return next month and spend the winter and should be most happy to receive a visit from yourself and husband. Please remember me to all friends. I remain most

Sincerely yours

M. L. M. O'Neil
