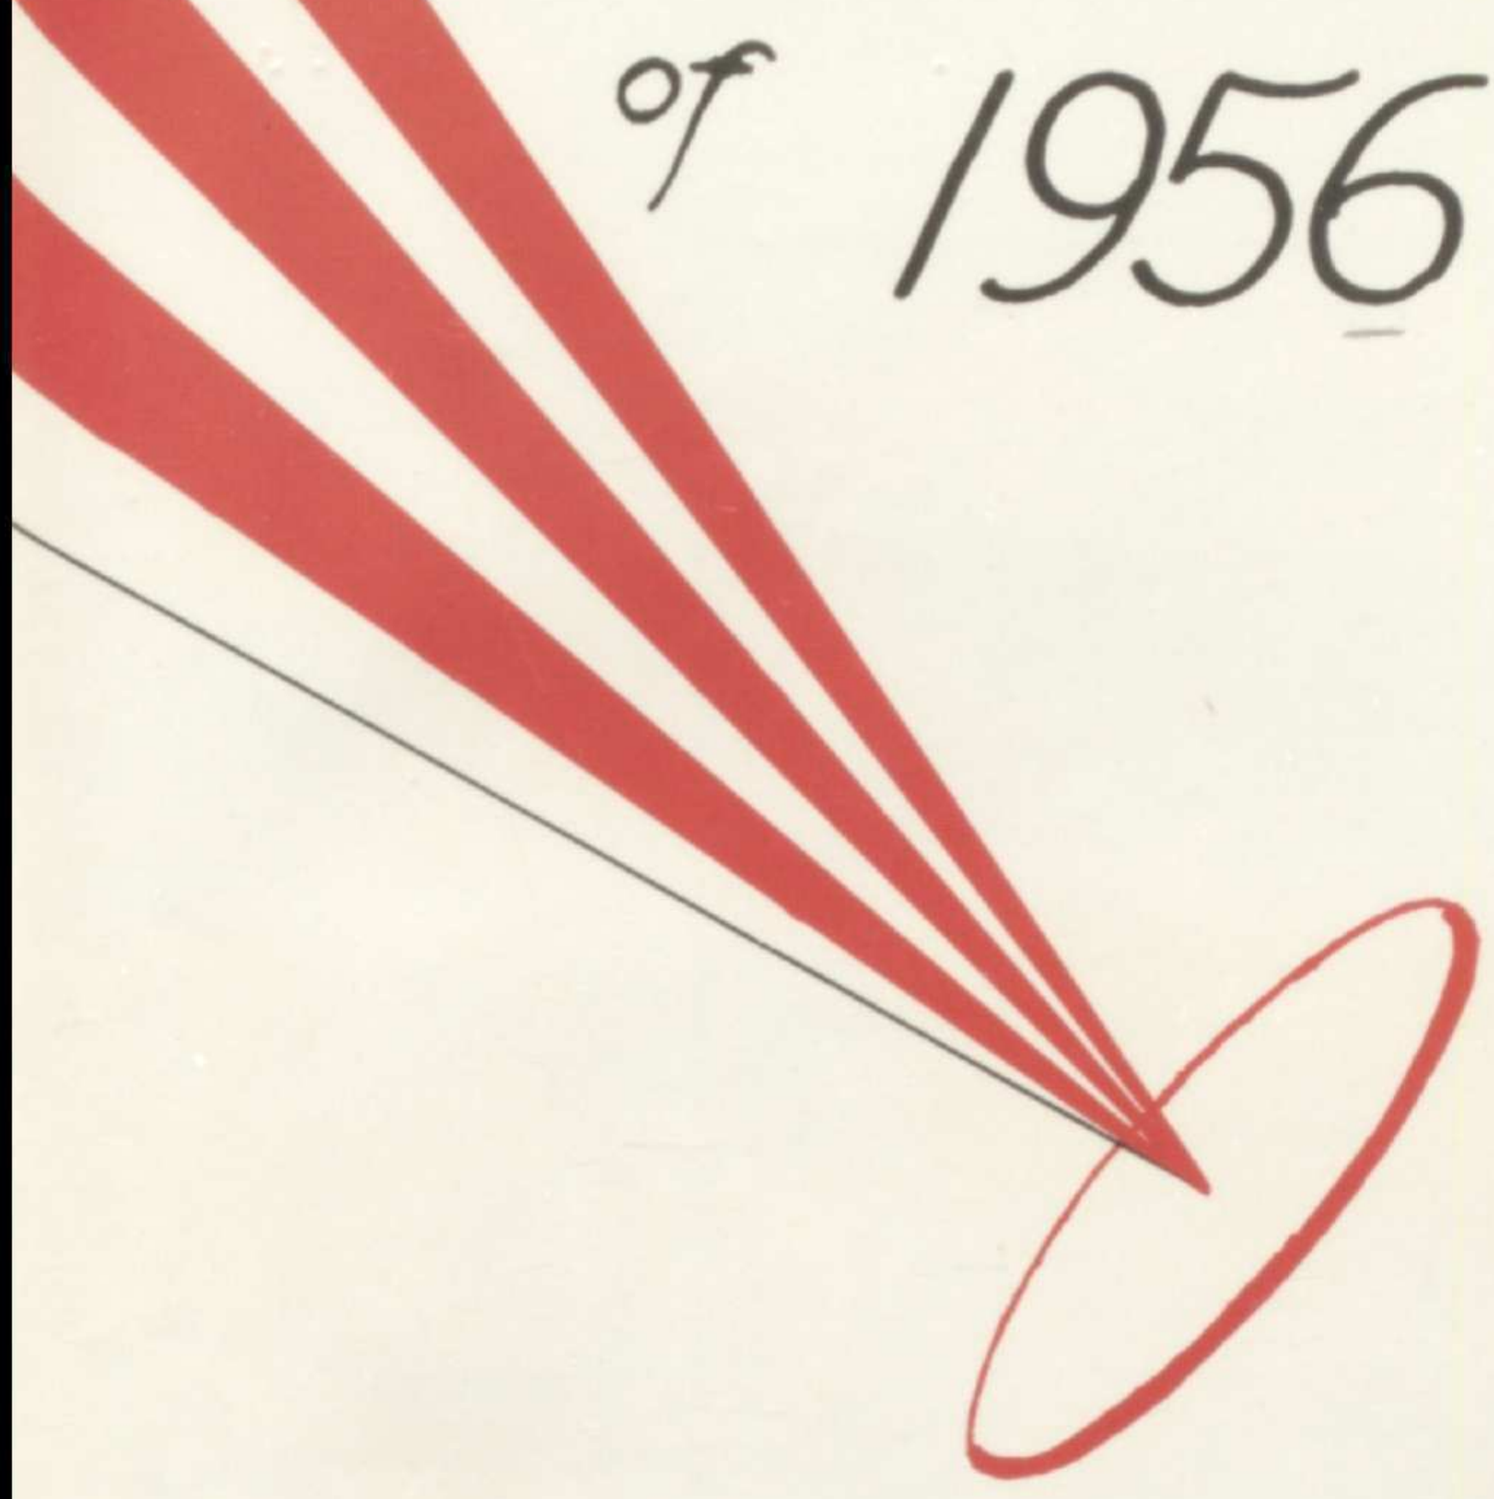
THE CARDINAL of 1956



WORTHINGTON
HIGH SCHOOL
WORTHINGTON, OHIO

IN MEMORIAM

GARDE ALFRED THOMPSON

During the summer of 1951, the members of the Class of 1956 were saddened by the death of Garde Thompson, one of their classmates. Garde's friendly ways and admirable personality will always be remembered by those of us who knew him.

The reflections of our high school memories are not complete without tracing back to the junior high fun and fellowship that centered around such students as Garde. Although he never lived his high school days with us, we have carried and will continue to carry the memory of him with us through happy times and memorable moments.

DEDICATION

MR. GLENN WILLIAMS

Since 1950 Mr. Glenn Williams has been serving Worthington High School in a number of ways. During his five years at W.H.S. he has introduced new ideas and methods to yearbook production and has constantly helped the staffs to improve THE CARDINAL with each passing year. In addition to this never-ending task, Mr. Williams has also taught classes in world history, economic geography, general business, journalism, and American history.

Now Mr. Williams is serving as our principal. His friendliness, hard-working spirit, and efficient leadership will always rank him tops on the list of W.H.S. favorites. In appreciation of his many services to THE CARDINAL and to Worthington High School, we dedicate the 1956 CARDINAL to Mr. Glenn Williams.

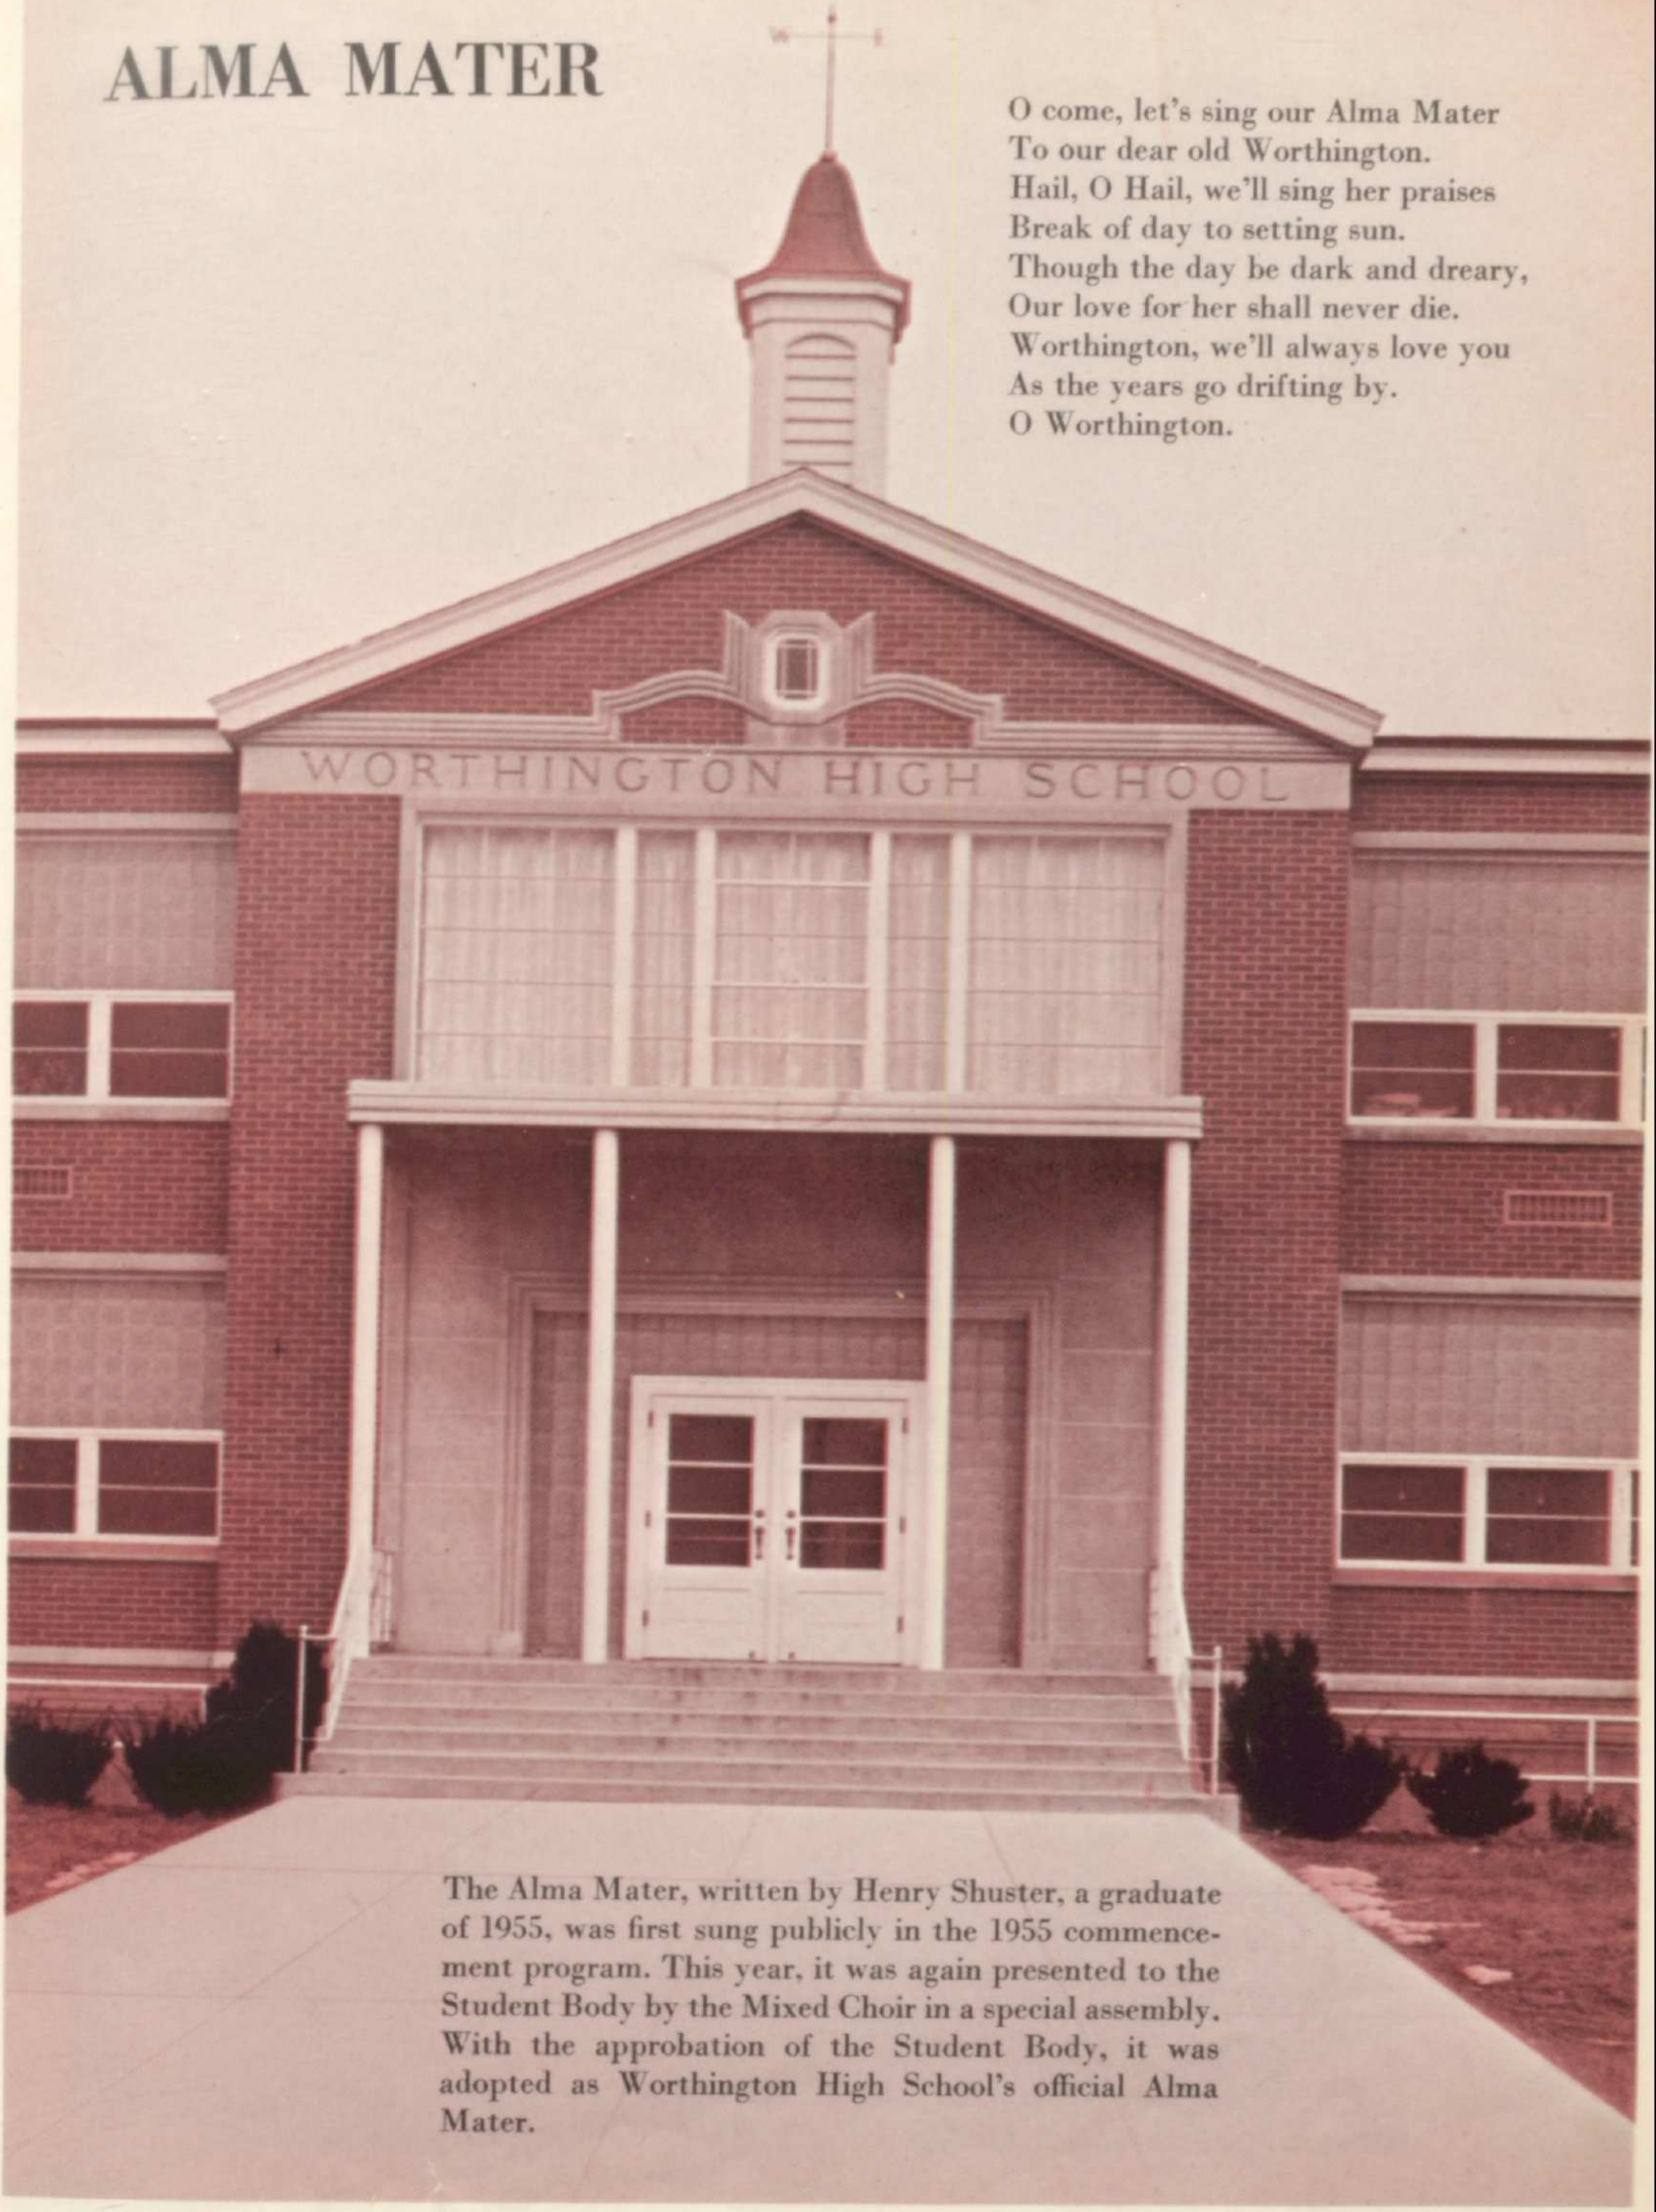
ALMA MATER

O come, let's sing our Alma Mater
To our dear old Worthington.
Hail, O Hail, we'll sing her praises
Break of day to setting sun.
Though the day be dark and dreary,
Our love for her shall never die.
Worthington, we'll always love you
As the years go drifting by.
O Worthington.



The Alma Mater, written by Henry Shuster, a graduate of 1955, was first sung publicly in the 1955 commencement program. This year, it was again presented to the Student Body by the Mixed Choir in a special assembly. With the approbation of the Student Body, it was adopted as Worthington High School's official Alma Mater.

Educating the Class of 1956 . . .

Members of the Class of '56 received their primary education in the fine elementary schools of the Worthington School District. Some were first educated at Worthington Elementary School, built in 1938 and located on East Granville Road. Others attended school at the Sharon building erected on Foster Avenue in 1949. A large group of '56ers went to Homedale, established in 1923 and found on Westview Avenue. Some were students at Flint School built in 1929 on the corner of Park and Flint Roads. North Perry School in Linworth contributed a few of the 1956 seniors to us.

The Junior High years were spent in the old high school building on the corner of Granville Road and Evening Street.

When the big moment arrived, the Class of '56 took the gravel path from the Junior High Building to enter the high school as the first freshman class in the new building.

Worthington Senior High School's first building, the academic wing, was completed in 1951. The administration wing was finished for the next school year. The third and most recent building of our campus-type plan, the gymnasium, was erected in 1953 and housed the 1953-1954 basketball squad.

The education of the Class of '56 has been an eventful one, and it has taken them through a majority of the schools in the Worthington system. Although the class leaves behind them these buildings and the traditions, the fond memories will linger for years to come. The graduates have left their contributions to Worthington in many forms such as the establishment of our Hall of Fame. Their spirit will remain at W. H. S. where, along with the work of those who are to follow, it will help build a firm and stable school government.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1956

The Class of 1956, being the first class to complete four years in our new high school, has doubtlessly had a fine record of accomplishments and highlights.

As Freshmen we dived right into the thick of class projects and elected Dick Allen to serve as our class president. Carole Koepke was chosen to represent us on the 1952 Homecoming Court, while Tish Stover was our Hallowe'en attendant.

Jim Bailey was elected to the class presidency during our Sophomore year and initiated many new ideas and projects. Our Homecoming representative was Ginny Thrall and Linda Campbell was selected to be our attendant for the Hallowe'en Court.

As Juniors we elected Sue Shidaker president of our class. Highlight of the year's efforts was the Junior-Senior Prom, "This Is Heaven," which we presented to the Class of '55. We chose The Mantis House, written by Mr. Rousculp, our English teacher, for our first class play. Caroline Corbin was our Homecoming attendant and Haldane Dosher represented us on the Hallowe'en Court. With the foundation of the Cardinal Queen tradition laid, our class was proud to have three girls among the seven finalists for the yearbook queen title. They were Carole Koepke, Nancy Van Voorhis, and Sue Shidaker. At the Christmas Formal, Sue Shidaker was crowned 1955 Cardinal Queen.

With the approach of our Senior year, we chose Russ Mann to lead us through our final year and its spaghetti dinners, chicken barbecues, and other projects. We presented Mrs. McThing for our class play. Much of the W.H.S. success of 1955-1956 is accredited to the fine leadership of our Student Body President, Jim Bailey, who worked endlessly for improvement of our school government.

As Seniors we chose Gay Orthoefer as our Homecoming attendant, and the student body elected Sue Shidaker to reign over the Homecoming Festivities. Carole Koepke was elected Queen for the Hallowe'en Festival and Caroline Corbin was her attendant. Representing us on the second annual Cardinal Court were Ginny Thrall, Molly Tarbutton, Nancy Van Voorhis, Caroline Corbin, and Diane Weate. Diane was chosen by Mr. John Robert Powers to hold the Cardinal Queen title.

As the Class departed on their Senior trip, they carried with them these happy memories of work, study, and play, which form the reflections left by the Seniors of 1956.

Students

During the course of the year, the economic geography class was fortunate to have as their guest teacher, Dr. Meno Lovenstein, who is a professor of economics at Ohio State University.

Members of the Speech Department tape record their voices as they study techniques of public speaking. Pictured here are Pat Brown, Dick Allen, and Dan Boucher.

Lab days in chemistry classes find the students busy with experiments. Here Judie Smith, Nancy Van Voorhis, and Connie Demos prepare for fifth period "chem lab."

The Industrial Arts Department offers various courses for mechanically inclined students such as Kevon Bruno and Phil Davis whom we find inspecting this motor.

JUNIORS

SOPHOMORES

The Class of '58 has taken an active part this year in the school life. Sophomores have been seen in the Mixed Choir, on the football and basketball teams, as cheerleaders, and with scholastic honors.

Under the capable leadership of John Stump, President; Dave Steinman, Vice-President; Peggy Campbell, Secretary; and Diane Monska, Treasurer, the class has undertaken many money-making projects. Several Saturday mornings were devoted to paper drives and bake sales.

In December, the class won first place in the magazine sale, sponsored by the Curtis Publications. They won Zippy, a stuffed monkey, who is now the official class mascot.

Because of the increasing number of class members, these Sophomore officers were faced with added responsibilities which they tackled well. The officers are: Standing: Diane Monska, Treasurer; Dave Steinman, Vice-President; Peggy Campbell, Secretary; Seated: John Stump, President.

FRESHMEN

The tasks and responsibilities which face a new high school class were coped with in an efficient manner by this year's Freshman Class.

Highlighting the football season was a Freshman Canteen, where many of the students of the largest class at W.H.S. became acquainted. Selling pen sets for Christmas was the first project of the year, and the class treasury was also supplemented by a successful magazine sale.

"THE BIGGEST SECRET"

At 9:50 P. M. on the night of December 23, 1955, couples ceased to dance and gathered around the royal throne. They were eagerly awaiting the announcement of the 1956 Cardinal Queen. At exactly 10 P. M. Sue Shidaker, Cardinal Editor, introduced each of the seven members of the court. Nancy Van Voorhis, Peggy Campbell, Diane Weate, Ginny Thrall, Caroline Corbin, Molly Tarbutton, and Joanie Armstrong were escorted to the throne to the tune of their favorite songs. The magical song of the evening was "Stardust," for it was Senior Diane Weate's favorite song. Jim McClanahan, Annual Business Manager, crowned Diane the 1956 Cardinal Queen as the feeling of tension gave way to applause and approbation of Diane's victory.

After the crown was placed on her head and Jim had bestowed the traditional kiss, 1955 Cardinal Queen Sue Shidaker presented Diane with the traditional necklace. This is a small gold heart on a slender chain which is handed down from Queen to Queen. Diane and her escort Bob Underwood danced to "Stardust," climaxing a very exciting ceremony.

December 8, 1955

My congratulations to the Cardinal Queen of 1956.

It was difficult indeed to choose between the seven lovely contestants for the title of Cardinal Queen, each one exemplifying so well the attractiveness inherent in the American girl of today. My final selection was based on the following qualities: conformation of features and facial contours; personality projection; naturalness and poise. Of all beauty attributes the most important are naturalness and poise.

My very best wishes to you, the Cardinal Queen, and to the students of Worthington High School.

Sincerely yours,
John Robert Powers

HOMECOMING

QUEEN SUE

The night air was cold and crisp as Queen Sue Shidaker and her court arrived at the football field in their royal chariots. They were greeted with shouts of joy from the onlookers. The half time ceremonies featured a show by the band entitled "Lovers" and was dedicated to Sue. The royal court consisting of Barbara Severns, Peggi Stine, Gay Orthoefer, and Terry Wallace, watched as the '55 football team beat Westerville for a perfect Homecoming. At the dance following the game, Jim McClanahan, Hi-Y President, crowned Queen Sue beneath a ceiling of red and blue streamers and paper footballs.

HALLOWE'EN

QUEEN CAROLE

The Hallowe'en Parade was greeted by a chilly October evening. As the Queen's float passed by, many "Oh's" and "Ah's" were heard from the spectators. This year the float was the special creation of Maple Lee Flowers. Seated against a background of yellow and white flowers, Queen Carole Koepke was very becoming in a festive red dress. Her court, Susan Whitt, Carol Carpenter, Connie Crooker, and Caroline Corbin, was seated in front of her in white wrought iron garden chairs. The queen and her court reigned over the dancing which followed.

QUEEN PATTI

Pre-season election by the track team made it possible to include this year's track queen in the annual. This season's choice is a junior, Patti Boggs. She and her court, consisting of a girl from each Mid-Six school, will reign over the Annual Mid-Six Track and Field Meet on May 8. This will be the sixth year Worthington has been the host school.

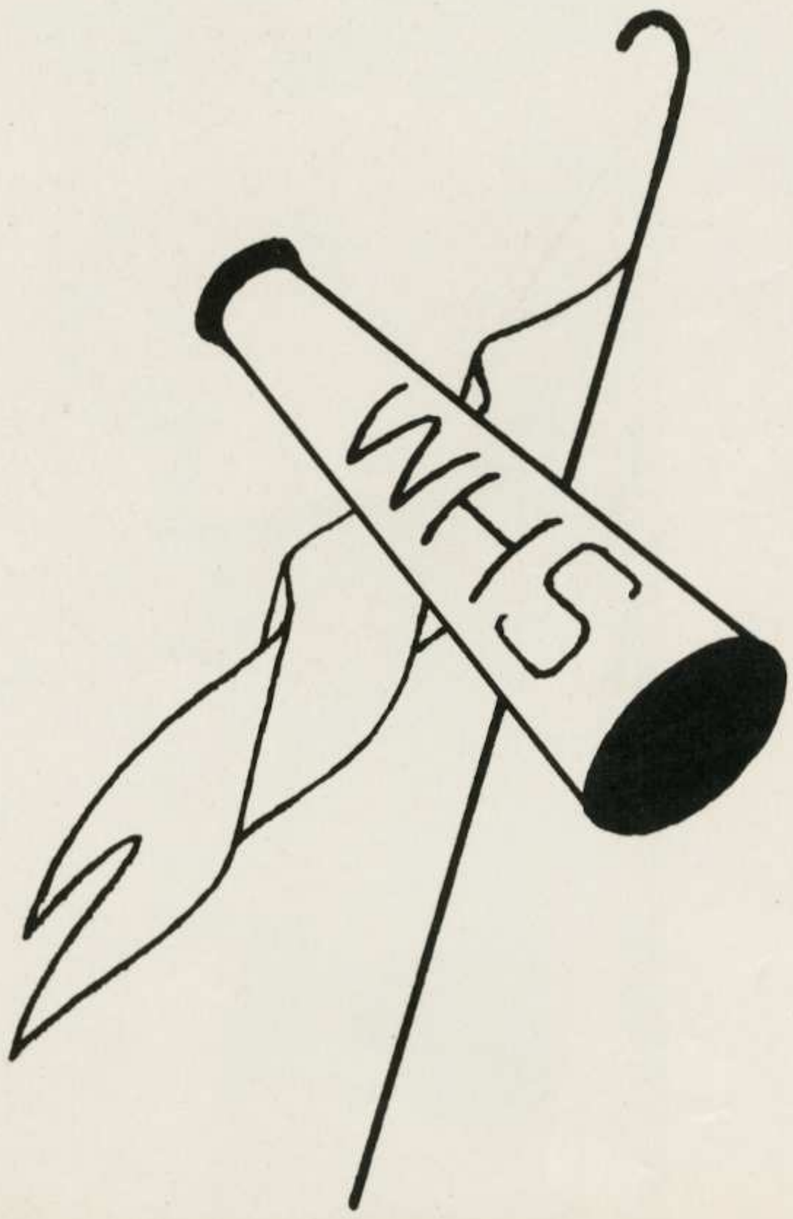
ATHLETICS

ATHLETICS



Reflections of rivalry . . .

Football co-captains, Bill Kelly and Jim Bailey, were elected by their teammates to lead the team during the 1955 season.

FOOTBALL

Our fighting Cardinals . . .

Starting the season with the tremendous handicap of having only four returning lettermen, the W.H.S. football team made a fine showing. Findings after the Mid-Six results were tallied showed that Worthington shared second place with Grove City, being surpassed only by first-place London. Worthington's season record consisted of 3 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie; and the league record being 3 wins and 2 losses.

Bill Kelly and Jim Bailey, co-captains for the team, made wise decisions and played excellent games at their half-back and quarterback positions.

The most memorable game of the year was the contest which was held at Delaware in the pouring rain. Sheets of water slashed at the players as they fought to a 6-6 tie on the slippery turf. A happy Homecoming was enjoyed when the W.H.S. team defeated Westerville, a traditional rival, by the score, 20-0. The actual contest for the Mid-Six Crown was between London and Worthington, the two league leaders, at the end of the season. W.H.S. battled valiantly but went down in defeat 26-0.

The reserve team composed of Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen played reserve teams of the varsity's opponents. During the season, the boys accumulated a record of 6 wins and 1 loss.

Worthington is proud of their five representatives to the All Mid-Six Team. Two complete teams consisting of outstanding players were chosen by the coaches of the league teams. Worthington players selected were Jim Bailey, Jim McClanahan, Bill Kelly, and Roger Farahay. Jerry Wellman received honorable mention.

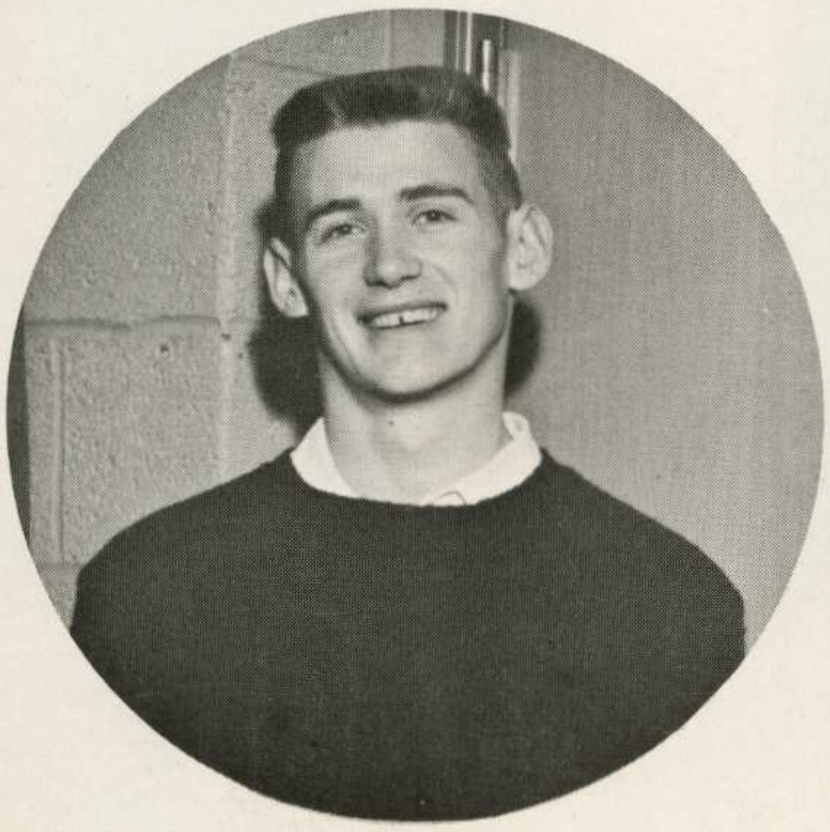
VARSITY BASKETBALL



Stan Robinett, Captain

The fiery Worthington squad completed a very successful season, duplicating last year's record of 15-3. The deciding factor as to whether we were champions or co-champions was our defeat at Marysville, a Mid-Six School. With three seconds to go Marysville made a basket and took a two point lead, thus achieving their share of the Mid-Six Crown.

The traditional alumni game at Worthington was abolished this year in favor of playing Dublin. The team started on a path to a successful season by their victory in the opener, and team followers were confident that their future was bright.

The Cards lost to a powerful Mt. Vernon squad, and the other non-league defeat was to North.

Four players of Worthington's starting line-up received honors in the All Mid-Six selections. Jim McClanahan and Captain Stan Robinett were placed on the first team; Jim Bailey, on the second; and Duane Pelkey received honorable mention.

The Worthington team was seeded in the Central District Class A Basketball Tournaments and progressed to defeat Linden and Delaware. The Cards were downed by the powerful East squad after leading the Tigers most of the game. The 50-45 score reveals the tremendous ball playing on the Cardinals' part. This year's tourney campaign marked the farthest the W.H.S. team has gone in Class A basketball. The locker room ovation after the East game testified to the fans' enthusiasm and pride in this year's squad.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

Competing in the Mid-Six Reserve League, Worthington's team, after an opening win over Dublin, lost three consecutive games by one point. They posted an overall seasonal record of 6 wins and 12 losses, including two close victories, a 27-26 decision over Westerville and a 23-22 defeat of Hilliards. Six schools outside of the Mid-Six League were also worthy contestants of the Cards.

Coach Ken Kayner's reserve team competed vigorously in their eighteen-game schedule, and a close look at statistics reveals their marginal losses. This 1956 squad composed of six sophomores and seven freshmen, will be spirited competitors on future Worthington teams.

CROSS COUNTRY

Another top-notch runner was highlighted during the 1955 X-Country season as Worthington's captain, Jim Russell, won the individual state championship, setting a new state meet course record of 10:33.2. Also high on Jim's list of victories and honors was his setting a new school record of 9:54 at Mansfield and a new Bowling Green Relays record of 10:06.5.

The team, coached by the capable Les Eisenhart, ran to a second place in the district for a new team low score and to a seventh place in the state meet for another team low score. The squad brought in a third place title in the state A. A. U. meet.

With the speed and endurance of Jim Russell, Jim Gorman, Duane Pelkey, Doug Severino, Paul Treece, and Jim Williams, the regular starting runners, W.H.S. racked up a season record of four wins and three losses. Judging from the fine support of the remaining team members, the Cards can look forward to a strong season in 1956.

Our matmen . . .

WRESTLING

The wrestling squad completed its second year of competition with a successful season. Led by Captain Phil Tangeman and Coach Les Eisenhart, the matmen in addition to holding a 4-2 dual meet record, took first in the Central District Meet.

In the first Worthington tournament, Lima Senior placed first and Worthington, second. The squad took seventh place in the regional meet at Findlay and qualified four wrestlers for the State meet. Bob MacVicar was third in the 133 pound class; Terry Davis, fourth in the 138 pound class; Phil Tangeman, second in the 165 pound class; and Russ Mann, fourth in the 175 pound class. The first match eliminated three of our wrestlers. Phil Tangeman won his first match but was disqualified in the next.

The team has many fine wrestlers who will contribute much to the bright future predicted for this newly organized sport.

Shooting for the green . . . GOLF

With only one returning letterman, the Worthington golf team will enter the 1956 season approximately two weeks from year book printing time.

Worthington plays in the Central District Golf League, consisting of fourteen schools. All of the City League schools, two CBL schools, two Mid-Six schools, and two CCL schools, are represented in this League. Games are played on Mondays, starting in April, and continue throughout the spring season.

Worthington will play in the Mid-Six Tournament in May at the University Golf Course. Westerville is the defending champion and will provide a challenge to worthy Mid-Six competitors.

The 1955 golf team was the runner-up in the Mid-Six Tournament, bowing only to Westerville.

A larger number of boys from all grades came out for golf this year which definitely shows an increased amount of enthusiasm. This is also very encouraging for Worthington's golf future.

Cinder demons . . . TRACK

Worthington seems to have a knack for producing top-notch track teams, and this year's squad appears to be no exception. The official practice began about one week previous to the printing deadline for THE CARDINAL, and the team then elected Jim Russell captain for the 1956 season.

Again this year Worthington will open their schedule by playing host to visiting schools for an indoor track clinic on March 14. Starting on March 16, the team will participate in four indoor meets before the outdoor season goes into full swing.

The Cardinal thinclads are coached by Les Eisenhart, who is presently serving as President of the Ohio Association of Track Coaches. Since the Mid-Six Meet was first staged, his boys have annually taken the league championship, and they will be out to hold their present standing.

1955 BASEBALL

The 1955 Worthington High baseball team finished its spring and summer schedule in July as Mid-Six Champions, adding another trophy to the 1955 collection. Coach Dow Nelson and his boys' league record read 8 wins and 2 losses. The Cards bowed only to London and Hilliards, both times splitting a doubleheader. In their opening game of the Central District Class A Tournament, the Cardinals defeated Groveport; but they were overtaken by Columbus South in the next game, leaving a season record of 9 wins and 3 losses.

The 1955-56 cheerleaders led the school in supporting the teams by various old and new cheers. Ginny Thrall brought many new cheers back from cheerleading camp with her. By forming the Pep Club the cheerleaders taught the students the new yells and encouraged active participation from our cheering section.

Cheering at the games is only one of the many activities of the cheerleaders. Every night before a game the varsity cheerleaders helped the cooks serve dinner to the basketball team in the cafeteria. Another important activity of the cheerleaders was organizing the pep rallies which were held previous to the games.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Both hockey teams, with the help of Kay Anderson, hockey manager, completed a successful fall schedule. The "B" Hockey Team is pictured above.

Indoor sports include fencing classes, as pictured above, as well as tumbling and ping-pong.

Under the supervision of Miss Mary Lou Bach the girls' athletic program has been increased by greater participation in a variety of sports. The A and B hockey teams traveled to nearby schools such as University, Bexley, and Grandview, and were hosts to Arlington. A spaghetti dinner climaxed the season. Thursday afternoons were devoted to the intramural leagues in basketball and volleyball, and any girl in the high school interested in sports was eligible to participate. The class basketball team members were chosen on the basis of skill and competed with other schools. A tournament among the class teams concluded the season. Other girls' sports included archery, fencing, ping pong, swimming, softball, and tennis.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL—This program provided the girls with school-wide participation in weekly basketball games.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Jim Bailey, Student Body President

In the spring of 1955, the W.H.S. student body elected Jim Bailey to serve as their leader for the 1955-1956 school year. In his speech Jim emphasized better student-teacher relationships, improved school spirit, increased student participation in school government, and a more active Student Council.

During his year of office, Jim executed his plans and with the assistance of a strong Student Council, many improvements and new ideas were introduced to our school life. His efforts and ideas have added a finishing touch to the fine reputation which our school has been building during the past years.

Meeting weekly . . .

STUDENT COUNCIL

Foremost among the desires of this year's Student Council was to secure better student participation and thereby realize better results. One of the projects of this student governing body was to set up the lounge in the lobby of the gym. They also ran the check room at the home basketball games and sold mums at the Homecoming game.

The council, composed of representatives from each homeroom and the class presidents, had several standing committees this year including the pep rally, assembly, and canteen committees. The officers elected by the council were Vice-President, Stormy Savage; Secretary, Patti Boggs; Treasurer, John Stump; and Reporter, Ginny Thrall. Jim Bailey, Student Body President, directed the meetings and Mr. Williams served as official advisor.

Organizing the plans and functions of Student Council were the officers: Reporter, Ginny Thrall; Vice-President, Stormy Savage; President, Jim Bailey; Secretary, Patti Boggs; and Treasurer, John Stump.

Service and fun . . .

Y-TEENS

"To grow in the knowledge and love of God . . ." is part of the purpose of the Y-Teens, a branch of the Y.W.C.A. The club combined fun and service in its activities this year. It sponsored nine service projects, and each member was required to participate in at least two of them.

The officers were Jann Moser, President; Sally Purcell, Vice-President; Carole Koepke, Secretary; Mary Thomas, Treasurer; and Jean McLaughlin, Member-at-Large. Advising this organization was Miss Porter.

The programs for the meetings, aptly planned by Sally Conner, Program Chairman, included skits about the conferences attended in the spring and fall and various interesting speakers.

Christian Service . . .

HI-Y

Leading the club in its various activities—Homecoming ceremony, Christmas Formal, and service projects—were the officers: Burt Schwab, Chaplain; Duane Pelkey, Treasurer; Jim McClanahan, President; Frank Sensel, Vice-President; John Chacey, Secretary.

The members of the Hi-Y Club have all helped the club to live up to its noble purpose: "To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school and community, a high standard of Christian character." This club, which is a branch of the YMCA, had for some of its activities the planning of the Homecoming ceremony, the co-sponsorship of the Christmas Formal, and the presentation of a Christmas box to the patients at the State Hospital. Also during the holiday season, the Hi-Y members joined with the Y-Teens to carol throughout the community, collecting donations for the Kinder Key Heart Association.

During the year, the club held two joint meetings with the Y-Teens, one of which was planned by the Hi-Y.

To lead the club through the busy year, the club elected the following officers: Jim McClanahan, President; Frank Sensel, Vice-President; John Chacey, Secretary; Duane Pelkey, Treasurer; and Burt Schwab, Chaplain. Mr. Nelson advised the Hi-Y.

HONOR SOCIETY

Members of the upper third of the Junior and Senior classes are eligible to be chosen for membership to the Franklin County Honor Society. The members are chosen by the faculty for qualities such as character, leadership, scholarship, and service, as well as for their scholastic ability.

Jim Bailey was the Worthington group's leader and representative to the county council for the two meetings of the 1955-1956 school year. The fall meeting was held at Gahanna-Lincoln High School and the spring meeting at Mifflin High School. As representative, Jim participated in the formal initiation services and instructed the W. H. S. initiates.

The meetings provide an excellent opportunity for the students of the various schools to become acquainted with each other. They co-operate to present the talent shows which follow the services. The host school provides music for dancing and refreshments are served.

G. A. A.

The President of the Girls' Athletic Association, Nancy Van Voorhis, and her cabinet composed of Carolyn Scatterday, Vice-President; Terry Wallace, Secretary; Judie Smith, Treasurer; and Maris Bennington, Social Chairman, led the group through a very successful year.

The club's purpose of promoting sportsmanship and giving girls the opportunity to participate in sports was fulfilled. A manager was chosen by the group for each of the sports including hockey, basketball, swimming, softball, volleyball, tennis, and fencing. A first for G.A.A. this year was the regular swimming team.

Surveying various types of publications are the officers of Press Club, Rick Larson, Treasurer; Jean McLaughlin, Secretary; and Sally Purcell, acting President.

The Press Club again held its traditional skating party during Christmas vacation, an event to which everyone looks forward. Meeting programs featured outstanding speakers including Norman Nadel, critic for the Citizen, and Ann Lowman of the Dispatch.

Membership in the club is composed of all students interestcd in journalism. The club had a new advisor this year, Miss Noone. Because the elected President, Enid Levenson, was attending another school, Sally Purcell, Vice-President, took over the duties of president. Jean McLaughlin served as Secretary and Rick Larson as Treasurer.

The Cheerleading Club is dedicated to the task of building better cheering sections and raising school spirit. Its primary function is holding elections for reserve and varsity cheerleaders.

A first at W.H.S. this year was the schoolwide Pep Club, sponsored by the Cheerleading Club. The members of the Pep Club, in order to have a more organized cheering section, attended regular meetings in which they learned new yells and practiced old ones.

The club was led by Ginny Thrall, President; Dotti Fouts, Vice-President; Kathy Lehman, Secretary; Donna Black, Treasurer; and the advisor, Miss Bach.

Students who are interested in the field of teaching as a profession may join the Future Teachers' Association. The club was led this year by Kathie Thomas, President; Joan Furnis, Vice-President; Nancy Lee, Secretary; and Dotti Fouts, Treasurer. Faculty advisor was Miss Burnside.

Among the club's activities, which were all planned to familiarize the members with the various phases of a teacher's job, were trips to other clubs and schools. Assistance to the teachers in grading papers was also offered by F.T.A. The speakers who were presented at the club meetings were of much help in picturing the teaching profession as it actually is.

The Future Nurses Club is a club which was established to interest students in the field of nursing and other related fields by presenting speakers. In this way, the girls received information concerning college and hospital courses and job opportunities. The club made several field trips, two of which were trips to Nightingale Cottage and Benjamin Franklin Hospital. They also plan to visit Children's Hospital. SPANISH HONOR SOCIETY

A new addition to Worthington is the Spanish National Honor Society, which was organized last year. Led by Carl Wick President; Dan Milhon, Secretary; and Barbara Laing, Treasurer, this organization worked for the interests of the Spanish department.

The members are chosen by Mrs. Clausing, the Spanish teacher, and must have maintained a B or higher average for at least a semester.

The main projects for the year were helping to plan National Pan-American Day, and the annual Spanish Fiesta, which is held at Worthington High School. Their meetings are held before school in the Spanish room.

Learning about Spanish customs and traditions are officers, Dan Milhon, Secretary; Barbara Laing, Treasurer; and Carl Wick, President.

These girls did an excellent job of leading the club this year, for they planned many fun-filled meetings and get-togethers such as a club skating party. They are: Seated: Paula Marks, Pres.; Standing: Marie Hanna, Sec.-Treas.; Mary Wood, Freshman Council Rep.; Jackie Rahn, Vice-Pres. Absent: Shirley Call, Historian.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Future homemakers . . .

The promotion of "International Understanding" was the theme of the Home Economics Club this year. They had speakers from foreign countries, made scrapbooks to send overseas, and sewed stuffed animals for hospitals.

Throughout the year each girl worked to receive the Junior Homemaker degree, the Chapter Homemaker degree, or the State Homemaker degree.

This club, which is open to all girls who have had one year or more of high school home economics, was under the able leadership of President, Paula Marks, and her cabinet, Jackie Rahn, Vice-President; Marie Hanna, Secretary-Treasurer; Shirley Call, Historian and Publicity Chairman; and Freshman Council Member, Mary Wood. Mrs. Palcich assisted the girls as advisor.

Exploring Science . . .

The Science Club had a very successful year under the leadership of Van Volk, President; Ricky Orwig, Vice-President; Mary Kay Schaal, Secretary; Steve Bobrovnikoff, Treasurer; and Sam Cushman, Reporter. Mr. Kenefick advised the group.

Each member worked on a project of his own, pertaining to some phase of science, during the year.

Included in their extensive program were trips to radio and television stations, Perkins Observatory, and speakers on hi-fidelity, biology, and chemistry.

The club, which is open to anyone interested in science, holds regular bi-monthly meetings.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club, added to Worthington's activities last year, is an organization of students who enjoy playing chess in their spare time. No officers are elected, nor do the members pay dues. The bi-weekly meetings provide entertainment by featuring matches with other schools such as Arlington High School, as well as matches between the members themselves.

THE 1956 CARDINAL

A bigger and better yearbook has been the constant goal of the 1956 CARDINAL staff as they spent many hours in weekend work sessions. These work sessions, the financial problems and worries involved, and the necessity of satisfying the majority gave the staff members a true picture of the production procedure of a high school annual. However, the fun of working together for a common goal, the thrill of first seeing the finished product, and the satisfaction of pleasing others more than compensate for the hours of tedious work.

Heading the groups of students who helped produce the "Reflections" of 1956 were Sue Shidaker, Editor, and Jim McClanahan, Business Manager. Miss Juliette Noone, a newcomer to the faculty, took charge of advising the editorial department of the staff. Mr. Glenn Williams advised the financial work.

In planning the 1956 CARDINAL the foremost endeavors were to personalize the features to W.H.S., to cover all phases of school life, and to present an annual that would vividly recall memories for everyone. It is the staff's sincerest desire that you, the student, will be pleased.

WILL AND PROPHECY STAFFS—These students met in the evenings to write the class will and prophecy which will appear as an independent publication this year. then elation

Publishing a yearbook involves much more work than meets the eye. These students have discovered that the behind-the-scene jobs call for telephoning numerous people to obtain correct information, running to junior high buildings, and tracking down many difficult-to-find people. Laying out pages, writing copy, and dreaming up headlines are only a few of the major pieces of work expected of the staff members.

When the final deadline, March 10, was reached, there was good reason for these annual workers to celebrate. After spending nearly every Saturday and many vacation days with the publication of THE CARDINAL, a free day to relax and enjoy themselves is a welcome treat to members of the staff.

THE ORACLE

The ORACLE, the W.H.S. section in the weekly WORTHINGTON NEWS, grew in many ways during 1955-1956. The ORACLE not only covered a full page, but it also added complete coverage of the Jr. High news, included a picture and an editorial every week, and broadened its editorial staff to ten positions.

The "Cardinal Outlook," a sports prediction column written by Robby Robinson, and "Cardinal Cut-Ups," a review column by Pam Smith were popular new features. "Grad-Tidings," the news from alumni was covered by Jerry Wellman. All the pictures for the ORACLE were handled by A. V. Shirk. The ORACLE was capably directed by Carole Koepke, Editor, and Miss Juliette Noone, Advisor.

The ORACLE covered the schoolwide news and kept the public up to date on W.H.S. activities.

The journalism class played a major role in the proofreading process which preceeded each Friday deadline.

New name, new news . . .

THE OUTCRY

Feeling that something new would catch the eyes of the students, the SHORT CIRCUIT staff decided to adopt a new name and a new style. Thus they became the OUTCRY staff with their new paper, THE OUTCRY.

The first step toward new style was to abolish about seventy percent of the traditional items and features and to include new news with a new twist. The mimeographed paper is now published five times a year rather than the usual three, and it contains more literary features such as excerpts from copy written by the journalism class and the various English classes. Such favorites as gossip and letters from the grads are also found in THE OUTCRY.

Editor Sue Stinchcomb and her advisor, Mr. Matthews, who was initiated to the advisorship this year, announced that their purpose was "to keep news newer and to develop interest through a change in content." This they succeeded in accomplishing, for the student body showed wide approval of their endeavor for newness.

A familiar scene in the typing workshop! The staff members meet after school to read copy and prepare for the publication's deadlines. Giving up free time is a necessity to these students who willingly and faithfully report for typing and mimeographing duty.

VOCAL MUSIC

Under the capable direction of Miss Ruth Pierce, the Vocal Music Department found 1955-56 to be a very successful year. A new twist was added to the annual Christmas Concert as the group sang a cappella. In the spring Worthingtonites enjoyed a delightful operetta, DOWN IN THE VALLEY, replacing the yearly Variety Show. The main activity of the department was participating in the County Contest. Groups from the Vocal Music Department also sang for various organizations including the Methodist Women's Club, P.T.A., O.S.U.'s Faculty Club, Baccalaureate, Women's Society, and Men's Clubs. Long hours of practice were spent in order to present these outstanding programs.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

The Instrumental Department, under the leadership of Mr. Russell Hill, has found the years 1955-56 especially successful. Mr. Hill, a new addition to the Worthington faculty, was a graduate of Worthington High School and was once a member of the Ohio State Marching Band.

Many different groups are included in the Instrumental Department, the outstanding ones being the Marching Band, the Dance Band, the Concert Band, and the Orchestra. Small groups of instrumentalists meet before and after school for informal jam sessions. The Pep Band has added enthusiasm to the cheering section by playing at all home basketball games and pep rallies.

Needless to say, all Worthingtonites are proud of their wonderful Instrumental Department and are always pleased to hear the band in action.

"DOWN IN THE VALLEY"

The Vocal Music Department this year, instead of a variety show, presented a delightful folk opera entitled "Down In The Valley," by Curt Weill. A selection of American folk tunes, sung by the Mixed Choir, provided an introduction to the production. The show was held on April 6 and 7 at the Worthington Elementary Auditorium.

"Down In The Valley" is the story of two young sweethearts, Brack Weaver and Jenny Parsons. Jenny's father wants her to marry another suitor, the well-to-do Thomas Bouche. A fight results between Brack and Thomas, and Brack accidentally slays his rival. Brack is sentenced to hang on the gallows; but on the night before his execution, he escapes from the jail to spend his last hours with Jenny.

The part of the leader, who tells the story, was sung by Russ Mann; Brack Weaver, by Herschel Jennings; Jenny Parsons, by Lois Sells; Thomas Bouche, by Jim Bailey. The speaking parts included that of Jenny's father, played by Jim Williams; the Guard, Alan Fisher; Peters, Bill Keating; and two women, Sue Stinchcomb and Dotti Fouts. The Mixed Choir was divided into the on-stage and off-stage choruses to provide the choral background. The entire production was under the direction of Miss Ruth Pierce, the head of the Vocal Music Department.

"THE MANTIS HOUSE"

On March 11 and 12, 1955, the Class of 1956 gave its first public performance when they presented THE MANTIS HOUSE, a three-act melodrama written by their own English teacher, Mr. Charles G. Rousculp. This being the first presentation of the play, the event was a highlight for both Mr. Rousculp and the class.

The theme of THE MANTIS HOUSE centered around the mysterious murders of several townsfolk. A roving five-foot tall mantis belonging to an "outcasted bishop" was the suspected murderer. The suspense of the play gave way to a romantic sub-plot involving a young college couple.

Mrs. Marilyn Wagoner capably directed the production and Alice Andes served as prompter.

Dr. Singer, Marilyn, and Dr. Imboden console frightened Laura as Consuelo disgustedly observes the situation.

"MRS. McTHING"

Leaving our modern world of jets, the audience entered a combined surrounding of gangsters, high society, and witches when the Class of 1956 presented MRS. McTHING. The play was presented on November 18 and 19, 1955, and it brought successful results beyond expectations.

When Mrs. McThing, a witch of dual personalities, kidnaps Howay Larue, a young boy of a well-to-do family, she leaves in his place a stick resembling the boy. As Howay enters the mobster life on the wrong side of town, many hilarious incidents involving his sophisticated mother and the gangsters add to the spice and variety of the plot. Mrs. McThing not only initiates comedy, but she also introduces bits of pathos as she leaves her adopted daughter with the Larue family.

Mrs. Laura Tobias was the capable director of the production, and Jann Moser served as student director.
